Thank you for considering donating artworks to Central Coast Council. The generosity of donors is greatly appreciated.

Many of the items in the Central Coast Council Art Collection have been donated. Some of the collection items are displayed publicly in Council buildings and a significant part of the collection is kept in storage. - Reflect the visual and cultural life of the Indigenous and non-Indigenous people of the Central Coast.
- Are of Local, Regional, National or International significance.
- Enhance the Central Coast Council Art Collection.
- Build a permanent cultural asset for the Central Coast.

Furthermore:

- Central Coast Council will acquire significant cultural gifts from its Sister Cities, and other cultural gifts and artefacts as deemed appropriate.
- Central Coast Council will not acquire objects for financial reasons but rather for artistic resource building and display reasons.

Please note: no guarantee will be given that donated work will be publicly displayed.
